Character Chart

A Christmas Carol by Charles Dickens

Directions: Please fill in the chart as your progress through the novel. Select at least six characters to discuss from the book. For personality traits, please use specific character traits (character traits are expressed as adjectives or descriptive words). Physical traits, on the other hand, should describe the way a certain character looks. Physical traits should also be expressed as adjectives.

Character's name	Personality traits	Physical traits	Significant details